Cover Photo - Geghard Monastery, also known as Ayrivank, is situated in Kotayk Province, in the village of Goght. It is located on the right bank of the Azat River (Freedom River) and is one of the few spiritual landmarks in Armenia that seamlessly integrates with the surrounding cliffs. The monastery earned the name Ayrivank due to its 140 cave cells carved into the rock formations.

Every year, Christians from a different host country choose the theme and prepare draft texts for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (WPCU). For this year, 2026, the prayers and reflections for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity were prepared by the Inter-Church Relations' Department of the Armenian Apostolic Church.

It is an honour for the Armenian Apostolic Orthodox Church to be highlighted during this year's Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

The title of the service, Light from Light for Light is inspired by the attribute of Christ adopted by the Nicene-Constantinopolitan creed, the monumental touchstone of all Christians, whose 1700th anniversary we commemorated last year. Christ is 'Light from the Light'. But the Anointed One was sent into this world with a mission: to shine God's Light into this troubled world, and to bring us into loving communion with each other and with God. Thus, 'Light from Light for Light'.

It is also noteworthy that Armenia became the first nation to declare Christianity as its official religion, through the efforts of St Gregory when he converted the pagan King Trdat in the year 301AD. St Gregory is known as 'the Illuminator' because he brought the Light of Christ to the Armenian people through baptism of the Holy Spirit in the name of the Holy Trinity.

The faithful of the Armenian Church are grateful for the prayers of all of the churches during this year. May the Holy Spirit open our hearts wide to perceive more vividly the radiant light of Almighty God's love for his children, the grim disgrace of our division, and the blazing urgency for us to rekindle the light of Christian reconciliation, as we thank God always for the boundless compassion and mercy of the 'Light from Light'.
